A custom shoe typically takes us 4-6 weeks in the making as it is especially handmade by our cobbler who has been passed the shoemaking skills down a generation. You will soon be able to order them custom online.

Summertime is loafer time

It's May, and summer is at the doorstep, and it is officially the season of loafers. Within the past couple of years, the slip-on dress shoe and other casual slip-on's have carved out its path in the exciting world of contemporary menswear. With the advent of versatile new styles, the loafer and its modern adaptations have gone from the prepster's footwear of choice to a style embraced by the well-poised gentlemen all over.

With the ability to design your loafers casuals, we start the season off with a plethora of choices. The designs below are custom and can be mixed and matched with leather, suede, fabric on the upper and leather, rubber, crepe, and Vibram running soles.

This is a classic Tassel Loafer in Camel Suede with Brown leather tassels and a leather sole. Versatile for all casual occasions. Perfect for the assemblage of the smart modern wardrobe. For the more prudent gentleman with a flair of style can pull off a Black and White Penny loafer in the most subtle yet prominent. The burgundy bit loafer heightens the decorative element of the shoe and enhances the wearer's urbane nature.

The contemporary man knows his way around the modern twist in loafer fused with a cup sole. Here are some Custom designed Belgian loafers sneakers:
